GAMES & CONTESTS

LET'S TACO BOUT IT

Participants will be divided into teams of two.

One person from each team is "the eater". They must stand with their hands behind their back in front of their taco shell/ ingredients. The other player is "the arms", they stand behind their partner "blind folded" and serve as their arms.

On the start of go "the arms" must add all the ingredients to the taco per the direction of the eater. Upon completion and approval from the judge.

The hands must feed the eater the Taco the first team to build and eat their taco wins!

TACO BATTLE

Two people will face off in a Taco battle.

Both contestants enter the battle ring wielding a wooden spoon with a hard Taco shell balanced on it.

The rules are simple, both players must try to break the other person's taco shell while at the same time protecting theirs from breaking or falling. You are not allowed to touch, hit, kick push, or pull the other person, only their taco sticks or tacos.

The last taco shell intact wins!
